CHARTERING & BROKERING

The Big Family

Our priority is to prevent your loss of money and time about the possible problems that might happen. Our chartering departments' main perspective is to give reliable service in the mindset of protecting whichever sides' rights. Firstly, duties and responsibilities of the chartering and brokering service must be defined. Thesedays many chartering agreements are signed just because of the brokerage commissions. An operation held like this can cause some unwanted results as well as causing some brokers to behave as a gambler in the market because of their never-ending ambitious. At this point, the important issue here is all the articles of a chartering agreement to be reviewed cautiously and for broker to make sure the both sides' rights are protected.

MS Marine Chartering department is teamed up with experts about "Break Bulk Cargo" projects as well as IMO Appendix B, heavy lift cargo, project and dangerous cargo. We, as a company, care about our customers' needs to met properly by a reliable chartering agreement instead of the brokerage commission that occurs. We work "NO CURE NO PAY" basis.

Having many experienced captains as managers, MS Marine creates a difference in risk evaluation of cargos for shipowners and ship tenants. We inform all parties about the risks related to local transportation, insurance of the cargo, the arrival time to loading ports, potential storehouse expenses, customs fees, the destination, the stability of the ship and the restrictions of the arrival shipyard regarding to their agreement.

Activities ;

- Time charter and voyage chartering
- COA negotiations
- Bareboat chartering
- Voyage chartering operations
- Port captains and Stow plans
- Laytime calculations
- Agency appointments and port DA review
- Final hire and freight calculations

Inventory of Hazardous Materials (IHM)

Ms denizcilik has developed capabilities to prepare Inventory of Hazardous Materials (IHM) for ships subject to the EU Ship Recycling Regulation (EU SRR) and / or the Hong Kong Convention for the Safe and Environmentally Sound Recycling of Ships.

Overview

From 31 December 2018, new European ships and EU-flagged ships going for dismantling must hold on board an Inventory of Hazardous Materials (IHM) verified by the relevant flag administration.

For all existing EU-flagged ships as well as ships from third countries calling at an EU port or anchorage, the certified IHM will be required from 31 December 2020.

Our team of HazMat experts can prepare the IHM Part I for existing ships and ships bound for recycling, and ensure they are certified by a classification society.
